The Maltings

At The Maltings, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilites, autism, Down's syndrome, and epilepsy.

Our warm and welcoming home has a variety of inviting communal spaces, including a modern kitchen and dining area, which are ideal for spending quality time with housemates while developing important daily living skills. We have a comfortable lounge for relaxing in and an accessible garden - a great spot for socialising and outdoor activities.

We have three wheelchair-accessible bedrooms, each with an en-suite wet room. We encourage each housemate to personalise their bedroom and transform it into a meaningful space.

A place to call home

Using person-centred support, we encourage each housemate to explore their hobbies and discover new interests. We enjoy a range of group activities, including arts and crafts, cooking, baking, and gardening.

We empower each person to maintain their independence by building and developing daily living skills and connecting with the local community.

Using a specialist approach, we continuously expand our skills and knowledge through targeted training, ensuring our support is always safe, effective, and aligned with industry best practice.
