BRAIN INJURY REHAB by voyagecare

Devonshire House

Devonshire House is a brain injury residential home, located in Manchester. We support up to 24 individuals with brain injury rehabilitation and brain injury non-rehabilitation.

The home is spilt into three, eight bedded units, surrounded by our garden and courtyard. This includes eight transitional flats for those who are more independent, or are working on transitioning on from Devonshire House.

Our home has plenty of communal spaces, including a multi-functional gym and therapy space! We have therapists visit the service throughout the week and therapy goals are incorporated into personal daily routines.

Located in the heart of Manchester, we are close to the city centre and have great public transport links, perfect for the people we support to explore the surrounding area!

A place to call home

Our vacancies at Devonshire House are all located on the ground floor - great for individuals with mobility needs!

These rooms are modern, spacious and have lovely views that over look our garden. They are wheelchair friendly and can be fitted with a hoist and overhead tracking if required.

The people we support enjoy a wide range of activities, including going to hydrotherapy, meals out, college courses and music venues.

We encourage everyone to be as independent as possible and help them to develop their daily living skills!
