579 Maidstone Road

579 Maidstone Road is a National Autistic Society (NAS) accredited residential care home, in Maidstone, Kent. We provide support for up to six females with learning disabilities, autism, challenging behaviour and mental health needs.

Our detached home has five bedrooms and there is self-contained accommodation for one person in a separate building.

Residents share a spacious communal living room and a large kitchen-diner, where people can enjoy meal preparation. We also have an activities room for pamper sessions, music time, discos, plus arts and crafts.

The front and rear gardens offer space for outdoor gatherings and celebrations or peaceful alone time. We also love a delicious BBQ, come rain or shine.

The service has excellent public transport links to the local town centre and Hempsted Valley Shopping Centre. There are also fast trains into London that take less than 45 minutes.

A place to call home

We currently have one vacancy at our home on the first floor.

The vacancy is ideal for an individual, aged 18+ who would enjoy living in a lively home, where they will be positively supported to learn daily living skills and enjoy meaningful activities.

Our house vehicle is used to support residents to access local leisure activities, community groups and day trips to the beach.

Some residents at 579 Maidstone Road engage in joint activities with residents at 351 Maidstone Road, our brother home located on the same road.
