Blackberry Hill is a warm and inviting residential care home, set in the small village of Castle Cary, Somerset. Here, we provide high-quality, 24-hour support for 10 people with complex learning disabilities, Angelman syndrome and epilepsy.

Our experienced and friendly team are trained with intensive interaction skills and can also support individuals with specialist dietary needs and communication behaviours.

The home has 10 fully-furnished bedrooms, each with en-suite bathrooms. These are decorated in a neutral shade - ready to be personalised to reflect an individual's choice and taste.

The service takes a person-centred approach to meeting the wellbeing outcomes of each individual, supporting them to engage in a range of activities, such as arts and crafts, in our upstairs conservatory. We also have pamper sessions and an onsite sensory and music room for residents to enjoy.

Based in Somerset, the service is close to both Yeovil and Bath, perfect for those wanting to explore nearby towns and cities.

All bathrooms have been fitted with grab-bars for additional accessibility when bathing. The first-floor rooms can be accessed using both the staircase and the lift, for those that need it.

Residents share other communal areas within the property including a spacious lounge, a dining room and a kitchen, where residents cook and learn independent living skills.

These vacancies are perfect for individuals who would enjoy living in a stimulating, supportive and caring environment.

We love to be part of the local community and enjoy contributing to community fates or visiting the cinema, local café, pubs, restaurants and beautiful spots in surrounding areas.
