Apple Blossom House

Apple Blossom House is a new residential care home located in Tilehurst, Reading. This modern service supports up to six adults with learning and physical disabilities. It is perfect for those transitioning from school or college into adult services.

This home has six bedrooms, all with their own en-suite bathroom. There are lots of communal areas for our residents to enjoy including a large lounge, dining room and conservatory, ideal for socialising and taking part in activities around the home.

Built with accessibility in mind, Apple Blossom House has space for specialist occupational therapy equipment. We also have height adjustable worktops in our kitchen, along with a hydro-bath and accessible garden.

Apple Blossom House is near to many local shops, leisure and education facilities and has great transport links.

Sandra Johnson
Service Manager

"Apple Blossom House is a vibrant, home from home for the people we support."

"We support residents to continue developing their skills and learn new ones, while ensuring they are involved in the important decisions about their life."

A place to call home

We currently have two vacancies at our home, one of which is on the first floor and the other is on the ground floor.

The vacancies are ideal for adults looking to grow and develop their independent living skills, in a fun and sociable household.

This home would suit young adults leaving school or college, who want a consistent structure and planned activities.

Our residential service offers safe and personalised support, forming part of a transitional plan into supported living, or for a long-term placement.
