Oaklands

Oaklands is a detached residential care home in Berkshire, that supports up to six individuals with learning disabilities, autism and epilepsy.

Our home is made up of six bedrooms, three located on the ground floor and three upstairs. Our home offers a spacious space, with communal areas including a lounge and kitchen.

Located in Theale, we have great transport links via bus and train into Reading, Newbury and other local towns and villages.

Theale has many local amenities such as shops and restaurants. It also has a lake, which our current residents enjoy when the sun is shining and we have a picnic packed!

A place to call home

All bedrooms at Oaklands are spacious and have access to a communal wet room, featuring a bath and a shower, offering both choice and accessibility.

Our current residents are aged 61 and over, so our home is designed to suit those that require a calm environment and slow place to live.

We encourage all of the people we support to decorate their bedrooms to their own personal style and taste!

Residents are supported to be the best they can be, through adapted environments and approaches that empower them to thrive.

Be apart of the Oaklands family!
