Redbank House

Redbank House is a residential care home in Nottinghamshire. We provide support for up to eight individuals living with Prader-Willi syndrome, autism and learning difficulties.

With a specialist focus on Prader-Willi syndrome, our team have extensive experience in this condition. Some of our team have been working at Redbank House since it opened in 2001!

Our rural home is located in the tranquil village of South Leverton, just five miles from Retford. The town offers a wide range of amenities such as supermarkets, hairdressers, beauticians, nail bars, pubs, gyms, a leisure centre and various shops and cafes. There are also opportunities for bingo nights and the availability to rent village halls for parties and celebrations.

A place to call home

Our home includes a main house, annex, and first floor flat. It features an open kitchen-diner connected to a communal lounge. We also have an activity room for various in-house activities like crafts, knitting and sewing classes.

We have community activities which include dance classes, gym sessions, cinema outings, bowling, pub nights and local walks.

For those seeking adventure, we organise day trips to theme parks, farm/wildlife parks, seaside visits, as well as caravan holidays and trips abroad with experienced support staff!

Our commitment to quality

We're committed to providing person-centred, high quality care and support – demonstrated by our sector-leading quality ratings by the Care Quality Commission.

Our highly trained, specialist teams have an individualised approach to support. We're committed to supporting you in a way that works for you – with reliability and consistency. You can rest assured your needs are at the centre of all we do.
