Brook Lodge

Brook Lodge is a residential care home in Gloucestershire. We provide support for up to eight people with autism, epilepsy, challenging behaviour, Down's syndrome and learning disabilities.

Our home has two floors and residents share communal areas including a living room, kitchen / dining room, and a bathroom.

We have gardens at the rear and to the front of our home, where you can find our delicious vegetable patch!

With Gloucester city centre, the Forest of Dean and Ross-on-Wye in easy reach, we love to explore! We also enjoy taking part in clubs such as football, horse riding, walking or arts and crafts, alongside a range of social activities at Orchard Trust, our local day centre!

A place to call home

Bedrooms at Brook Lodge are spread across the ground floor and first floor, with some offering en-suite facilities.

Some of our rooms also have additional accessibility features such as manual hoists and disability chairs.

The people we support at our home are mostly men aged 40+. They enjoy being sociable but also like their own space, routines and independence.

Our current residents enjoy getting involved in the local community, which offers various fun activities specialised for those with learning disabilities! These include scenic walks into the forest and volunteering with charity Enviroability.

Our commitment to quality

We're committed to providing person-centred, high quality care and support – demonstrated by our sector-leading quality ratings by the Care Quality Commission.

Our highly trained, specialist teams have an individualised approach to support. We're committed to supporting you in a way that works for you – with reliability and consistency.

Data accurate as of September 2023*
