Woodley House

Woodley House is a residential care home located in Nottinghamshire. We support up to 18 individuals with autism, learning disabilities, Down's syndrome, Huntington's disease, mental health and other complex needs.

Our home is made up of three purpose built properties: the main house, the cottage and the bungalow. Each property supports a different mix of individuals with compatible needs.

Woodley House is located within easy reach of the local village, where you'll find a café, pub and small shops.

For those who enjoy retail therapy, Clifton shopping centre is only a 15-minute walk, and Nottingham city centre is a short bus ride away.

Main house bedroom

A place to call home

The main house has nine bedrooms and is male only occupancy. The cottage has five bedrooms, all with en-suites and can support both males and females. The bungalow is a smaller property supporting female residents and has four bedrooms.

Each home has communal areas, including fully equipped kitchens and lounge areas.

Our three properties are linked via a beautiful courtyard - great for socialising in the warmer months.

Our commitment to quality

We're committed to providing person-centred, high quality care and support – demonstrated by our sector-leading quality ratings by the Care Quality Commission.

Our highly trained, specialist teams have an individualised approach to support. We're committed to supporting you in a way that works for you – with reliability and consistency. You can rest assured your needs are at the centre of all we do.
