69 Chantry Gardens

69 Chantry Gardens is a residential care home in Trowbridge, Wiltshire. We provide support for three people with autism, cerebral palsy, challenging behaviour, epilepsy, Down's syndrome, learning and physical disabilities, and mental health needs.

Our lovely bungalow provides each individual with their own bedroom, decorated to reflect their individual personalities.

We have plenty of communal areas including a lounge, kitchen, and a quiet room where people can choose to sit and listen to music, read or create something using art and crafts. At the rear of the home we have a large garden with a stream running along the bottom that overlooks fields.

A place to call home

Our dedicated team are passionate about providing high quality care and support, so housemates can lead fulfilling and active lives. They ensure everyone's social, emotional and medical needs are met.

The people we support love participating in a range of activities, including cinema trips, visiting the local animal park and enjoying days out at the local shopping centre.

We enjoy exploring surrounding areas such as Bath, Bristol and Swindon. With so many places to visit, every day is an adventure for us!
