Rivelin House

Rivelin House is a specialist nursing care home in the heart of Sheffield, West Yorkshire. We deliver person-centred support to adults with a wide range of additional needs and clinical care requirements.

Situated in a friendly residential area, our eight-bed home has been thoughtfully adapted to support our housemates' needs. From accessibility adaptations, to ensuring the home decor promotes wellbeing, your home is designed with you at heart.

We have plenty of spacious communal areas where you can engage with your housemates. We have a large lounge, dining room, kitchen, and a wheelchair accessible garden.

We also benefit from a self-contained flat, which is ideal for someone who can live with a little more independence. Complete with a kitchen, living/dining area, and a bedroom with an en-suite wet room. Our flat also has a private garden, as well as access to our main communal garden.

A place to call home

Grounded in a person-centred philosophy, our support ensures you're empowered to live the life you choose, with confidence that your health needs are cared for by qualified professionals.

Our team comprises a compassionate care management team, who monitor everyday wellbeing and empower you to live a meaningful life. We're supported by a team of qualified nurses who are trained in a variety of clinical processes. Together, we'll ensure you're healthy and happy, so you can do the things that are meaningful to you.

We offer an exciting activity programme, fully tailored to meet your needs and interests. We champion inclusion and ensure everyone can join in with things like baking, arts and crafts, and accessing opportunities in the local community.

Your needs at the centre of all we do
