Tate Lodge

Located in a vibrant residential area of Merseyside, Tate Lodge offers specialist support for up to eight people with complex support needs. We currently support individuals with a learning disability, autism, challenging behaviour, and mental health needs.

Through person-centred support, we empower the people we support to develop important daily living skills, so they can achieve a level of independence that's right for them.

We benefit from en-suite bedrooms for privacy and independence, a cosy communal lounge for socialising and engaging with others, and a fully equipped, modern kitchen-diner - perfect for practicing daily living skills.

We're within walking distance of the nearby town centre where we regularly access amenities, including shops, cafes, and our local pub.

A place to call home

At Tate Lodge, we work with you to create a bespoke care plan, ensuring you're at the heart of all decision-making. Our plans are designed to empower you to achieve your goals, engage in the local community, and increase your independence.

Our team assist you to budget and shop independently, go on holiday and get involved in activities around the home and out in the community. Activities include bowling, swimming, shopping, volunteering in the community, and much more!
