The Grange, Liss

At The Grange, Liss, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions including learning disabilities, epilepsy, and sensory impairments.

Our home comprises two properties: a main house supporting 14 individuals and a bungalow supporting one additional person. We also have a range of welcoming communal areas such as a lounge, kitchen, and a beautiful garden.

There are three shared bathrooms on the first floor, and a shared shower room and wet room on the ground floor. Three of the bathrooms have overhead hoist facilities – perfect for those with mobility needs.

A place to call home

Located in the picturesque village of Liss, we are well connected to the local community. We regularly venture out so the people we support can enjoy exciting activities such as music for health sessions, theatre shows, bowling, cinema trips, cycling, and swimming. We also have three wheelchair-accessible vehicles on site making trips further afield easier.

Our experienced team has specialist training across all the conditions we support, empowering them to deliver high-quality, person-centred care.
