The Hadlows

The Hadlows is a warm and welcoming nine-bedroom residential home that provides an engaging space to thrive and enjoy life to the fullest!

Our home benefits from two spacious communal lounges for relaxing and hosting movie nights, an open-plan kitchen with a dining area for shared meals, and a beautiful garden - perfect for gardening and outdoor activities.

Our bedrooms offer you a comfortable, private space that you can personalise to reflect your own style and taste.

We benefit from easy access to local amenities, helping you stay connected with the community. We have two in-house vehicles, making it easier to enjoy outings to social clubs, cafés, restaurants, and sports centres. We also enjoy exciting holidays in the UK and abroad!

A place to call home

Our team is experienced in supporting a wide range of needs and conditions, including acquired brain injuries, mental health needs, behaviours that challenge, learning disabilities, and epilepsy.

We take a person-centred approach, so your support is fully tailored to you. We encourage independence, choice, wellbeing, and meaningful relationships. Through activities such as cooking, meal planning, household tasks, and shopping, you'll be empowered to develop key life skills and shape your own routines.

At The Hadlows, there's always something fun to get involved in, including board games, quizzes, karaoke, and regular visits from an aromatherapist, personal fitness trainer, and music therapist.

Quality Care & support!

We're committed to providing high-quality, person-centred care and support.
