Tweed Lodge

Tweed Lodge is a six-bed residential care home spread across two floors. Our home features a large lounge and dining room, offering a welcoming environment for everyone. We also benefit from a lovely garden – perfect for enjoying some time outdoors!

Designed for accessibility, our home features a lift, tracking hoists, and adjustable beds to support those with mobility needs.

Our team supports a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilities, epilepsy, and complex care needs.

A place to call home

Tweed Lodge is in the heart of a vibrant community. There's lots to explore nearby, such as Gyle Shopping Centre, and local community groups. We also have great public transport links into Edinburgh.

Together, we enjoy lots of activities, such as cycling, day trips, sensory activities, gardening, and cooking. We also enjoy attending clubs, like weekly art and music clubs, organised by our support team!

Our team empowers you to stay independent and take part in the activities you enjoy. We're here to help you build and maintain meaningful connections with your family, friends, and local community!

Quality Care & support!

We're committed to providing high-quality, person-centred care and support.
