Woodley House

Woodley House is a warm and welcoming residential home made up of three purpose-built properties, offering a comfortable and supportive place to live.

Woodley House is made up of a main house, cottage, and a bungalow. The main house has nine bedrooms and provides male-only accommodation. The cottage supports males and females, and includes five en-suite bedrooms. Our bungalow is a four bedroom property and supports females only.

Each property has communal areas which include, fully equipped kitchens and lounge spaces. Our three homes are linked by a beautiful courtyard, ideal for socialising!

Woodley House is well connected and offers excellent bus links to Nottingham city centre and places further afield. Local amenities, such as a cafe, pub, and shops, are also conveniently nearby.

A place to call home

Our team is experienced in supporting people with a wide range of needs, including learning disabilities, autism, Down's syndrome, Huntington's disease, and mental health needs.

We take a person-centred approach, ensuring your support is truly tailored to you. We encourage you to continue enjoying the hobbies you love, or explore new interests. Our support also provides easy access to the community, made easier by our shared on-site vehicles.

We develop our knowledge through specialist training, ensuring our support aligns with industry best practices, so you can live the best life possible.
