Arnold Road

At Arnold Road, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including learning and physical disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy, Down's syndrome, and epilepsy.

Our spacious home is made up of eight en-suite bedrooms and two flats attached to the main house, perfect for those looking for more independence. The home benefits from communal areas to relax and socialise in, such as a comfortable living room, kitchen-diner, sensory room, and a large garden with a fruit and vegetable patch.

Designed with accessibility in mind, Arnold Road has been adapted with tracking hoists in each bedroom, a lift, wide corridors, and adjustable beds.

A place to call home

Located in Bestwood, Nottingham, our home is along a main road where public transport is easily accessible. We're just a short 15 minute drive from Nottingham city centre and 30 minutes via public transport.

There are many local amenities nearby, such as supermarkets, swimming pools, churches, local parks, a bowling alley, cinema, and restaurants. There is also a medical centre nearby and the city hospital is only five minutes away.

Our team deliver tailored support for everyone's communication style, preferences, needs, goals, and level of independence. Housemates are given opportunities to make friends, attend groups, go out locally, and maintain relationships with family and friends.
