Woodham Lodge

At Woodham Lodge, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilities, autism and Down's syndrome.

Our six-bedroom house has plenty of communal areas, such as a spacious kitchen, dining room, a large lounge and a sensory area.

Thoughtfully designed with accessibility in mind, we have an adapted bathroom with a high-low bath and over-head tracking hoist, as well as a wet room for showering. Our bedrooms are equipped with adjustable beds, prioritising the comfort and safety of the people we support.

A place to call home

Located in the residential area of Newton Aycliffe, we have plenty of convenient local amenities nearby, including shops and cafes. We also enjoy visiting local attractions, like our community theatre and the seaside. Nearby, we have great transport links and a service vehicle for trips further afield.

Our housemates are encouraged to get involved with activities both at home and in the community. As a household, we particularly enjoy getting stuck in with arts and crafts, playing games, having party nights and fun baking sessions.

Working closely with the people we support, we empower them to achieve their unique goals and ambitions. Through person-centred support, we ensure individual needs are met and the people we support can lead the fulfilling lives they deserve.
