Castle Lane

Castle Lane is a welcoming residential care home providing support for a range of needs and conditions including learning disabilities, non-rehabilitation brain injuries, and mental health needs.

Our three-bed, semi-detached home offers a range of communal areas including a kitchen-diner and a spacious lounge for socialising with housemates. We also have a large garden with a patio area and outdoor furniture, perfect for relaxing in the sunshine.

Our home is located in an urban setting with local amenities nearby, such as shops, cafés and a leisure centre. We also benefit from nearby public transport links, offering easy access to Solihull town centre and beyond.

A place to call home

Our expertly trained team deliver person-centred care plans, enabling tailored and consistent support. Our wake night team ensures you receive the support you need around the clock.

We work with you to increase your independence and accomplish your goals. We'll get to know you as an individual, understand your passions and take you on a journey to fulfillment.

You're at the heart of your care and we encourage you to choose your favourite activities. As a home, we regularly visit the local community. We enjoy going to the Monkey Forest, Cannon Hill Park, West Midlands Safari Park, the cinema, and the swimming baths.
