579 Maidstone Road

579 Maidstone Road is a National Autistic Society (NAS) accredited residential care home in Maidstone, Kent. We provide support for up to six females with a learning disability, autism, challenging behaviour, and mental health needs.

Our detached home has five bedrooms, along with a self-contained flat in a separate building. We have a spacious communal living room and a large kitchen-diner, along with an activities room for pamper sessions, music time, discos, and arts and crafts.

The front and rear gardens offer plenty of space for outdoor gatherings or peaceful time alone. We also love a delicious barbecue on sunny days throughout the year!

We have excellent public transport links to the local town centre and Hempstead Valley Shopping Centre. There are also fast trains into London that take less than 45 minutes.

A place to call home

At 579 Maidstone Road we use a person-centred approach that respects and values your unique needs, preferences, and choices. By involving you in decisions about your own care, we promote independence to enhance wellbeing and improve quality of life.

We have a house vehicle that allows us to easily access local leisure activities, community groups, and day trips to the beach!

We encourage you to engage in joint activities with the people we support at our neighbouring service, 351 Maidstone Road.
