Ten Acre Respite

Ten Acre Respite is one of our dedicated respite services located in Rotherham, South Yorkshire. Here, we offer support for up to five individuals with a learning disability, autism, challenging behaviour, Down's syndrome, epilepsy, and cerebral palsy.

Our spacious, fully accessible bungalow has been thoughtfully designed to accommodate those with additional mobility needs, including wide corridors for easy movement. We have five cosy bedrooms, each with an en-suite toilet and sink, and two rooms are fitted with overhead tracking hoists. There's also an adapted wet room with a shower chair, and overhead hoist.

We have shared spaces including a lounge and large dining room - providing ample opportunity to socialise with your housemates!

A place to call home

We're conveniently located close to shops, parks, and great transport links to Rotherham, Sheffield, and Doncaster. We also have an adapted minibus for fun and accessible group outings. We enjoy time together at home, with in-house activities like disco nights, and arts and crafts!

Our fully trained team provides person-centred care, including medication support, epilepsy rescue medication, PEG feeding and much more! We offer 24-hour care and support with two waking night team members on duty throughout the night.

As a team we work closely you, your family, and professionals to create a personalised care plan that empowers you to lead a fulfilling life.
