20 Towngate East

20 Towngate East is a residential care home located in Market Deeping, Lincolnshire. We provide care and support for up to eight people with a learning disability, physical disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and additional communication and complex care needs.

Our accessible home has eight bedrooms, spread across a main house and rear annex. Designed for comfort and inclusivity, it features adjustable beds, a lift, ceiling tracking hoists, and accessible bathrooms on both floors, including one with a high-low bath! Our home offers a mix of private spaces and open-plan communal areas, including a large dining room and expansive garden.

We are close to shops, cafés, gyms, and a leisure centre. Our home is also near a health centre with strong links to local GPs and nurses. We have great transport links connecting you to Peterborough, Bourne, and Stamford, with regular buses nearby.

A place to call home

From cinema trips and bowling, to zoo visits, nature walks, and picnics, we encourage you to embrace your favourite activities! With two house minibuses, getting out and about is easy.

We love welcoming family and friends into our home, often hosting social events and celebrations that everyone can enjoy together.

Our dedicated, long-standing team takes time to get to know you, so they can truly tailor care and support to your needs. There's always support available, with a waking night team member and sleep-in team member on hand every night for peace of mind.

“Towngate East is a homely environment and the team are incredible. They've supported my son to develop skills, enjoy his favourite activities, and engage in the local community.”
