Orchard Leigh

At Orchard Leigh, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including autism, learning disabilities, behaviours of distress, epilepsy, and Down's syndrome.

Our detached, family-style home offers comfortable living accommodation. We have seven bedrooms spread across two floors, each of which is complete with private en-suite facilities. A range of communal areas and shared spaces are also available, including a cosy lounge and a kitchen-diner overlooking our spacious landscaped garden.

We benefit from a stair lift to access the first floor, supporting people with non-wheelchair dependent mobility needs to access all areas of the home.

A place to call home

Using person-centred support, we empower individuals to engage with the local community and establish independence. We access a range of community opportunities and activities that keep us fit, healthy, and support our emotional wellbeing. Getting around is easy with our two vehicles and nearby bus and train links.

Our team are specially trained to support a wide range of needs, including moderate levels of behaviours of distress. We support people to manage overwhelm, anxiety and periods of distress, so they can positively reconnect with their environment. Empowering individual expression, we're trained in Makaton, so, the people we support can confidently and clearly communicate their needs and wishes.
