Orchard Leigh

Orchard Leigh is a specialist residential care home located in a quiet residential area in Cheltenham. We offer high-quality support for up to eight people with a learning disability, autism, epilepsy, and mental health needs.

Our charming home has six large en-suite bedrooms for full residential support and two self-contained flats for added independence. We benefit from plenty of communal areas, including a spacious lounge, kitchen, and a dining room with patio doors leading out to our garden.

As a household, we love to socialise and entertain in our garden. When we're not enjoying time at home, you'll find us in our local community! We're conveniently located close to various amenities and transport links, so we can go on adventures further afield!

A place to call home

Our specialty trained team encourages you to be the lead a life that's meaningful to you. Through person-centred support tailored to your needs and interests, we empower you to set and achieve goals, so you can live as independently as you choose.

We promote positive emotional and physical wellbeing. Using compassionate support, we'll help you explore your feelings and emotions, access health appointments and live a healthy, happy life!

As a household, we love doing things together. Current favourite hobbies include swimming, bowling, cinema trips, and shopping. We also have social days with other nearby services, visiting the pub, taking scenic walks, or visiting nearby places of interest!
