Westleigh House

We support up to 12 people with a learning disability, autism, cerebral palsy, Down's syndrome, epilepsy, and complex needs. Through person-centred support, we empower you to focus on your abilities and live as independently as possible.

Our spacious accommodation is split across two floors and fully accessible via a lift. We have 12 en-suite bedrooms, lots of communal areas and additional wellbeing features, including:

- a sensory/activity room for enhanced wellbeing
- relaxing bathroom for unwinding and pampering
- an enclosed accessible garden for fun outdoors

To further support your health and happiness, our bedrooms are complete with mobility equipment, such as ceiling tracking and hoists. Our expert team are fully trained in a range of additional needs, like diabetes management and PEG feeding, so you'll always be in tip-top shape!

A place to call home

We pride ourselves on our friendly, welcoming atmosphere. Our current housemates are empowered to be their authentic selves and let their personalities shine through! Together, we've nurtured an inclusive, vibrant home built on kindness and compassion.

As a household, we regularly engage in a range of exciting activities. In the community, we love to go swimming at our local pool or pop down to Wimbeball Lake. At home, we get stuck into different creative activities, like arts and crafts and music sessions. We also have regular pet therapy sessions with four-legged friends!

Our team ensures your unique needs, wishes, and preferences are at the heart of your support. We empower you to express yourself, and value your opinions on how your home is managed.
