Churchfield Avenue

Churchfield Avenue is an eight-bed residential care home which offers a comfortable, homely living environment.

Thoughtfully adapted throughout, our home features widened corridors, a specially designed bathroom, and a lift - ideal for those with mobility needs.

We have a variety of inviting communal areas, including a cosy lounge, modern kitchen, dining room, bright conservatory, and a spacious garden - perfect for socialising and relaxing.

Our team supports a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilities, autism, physical disabilities, and complex care needs.

A place to call home

Our dedicated team supports you to take part in a wide range of in-house and community activities, helping you develop independence while having fun. Some of these include arts and crafts, karaoke, pamper days, holistic sessions, and music therapy.

We also enjoy regular trips to the local community. We love going bowling, watching films at the cinema, shopping, and taking part in social events at the community centre - made easier with our private minibus!

Quality Care & support!

We're committed to providing high-quality, person-centred care and support.
