

Bronte View, Keighley, West Yorkshire

Bronte View

Bronte View is a warm and welcoming residential care home that offers a homely, nurturing environment in West Yorkshire.

Our single-storey home is set within four acres of peaceful, rural surroundings. Divided into seven spacious apartments, we offer a comfortable environment where you can embrace independence.

Each apartment has its own lounge and a well-equipped kitchen-diner, giving you space to relax and enjoy everyday life. Outside, our expansive grounds provide the perfect setting to enjoy the peace of the countryside, with opportunities for gardening and outdoor activities. We also have a fruit and vegetable patch, which you can help to look after if you wish.

We benefit from excellent public transport links, with a bus stop right outside our home, making it easy to access local towns and attractions further afield.

A place to call home

Our team are experienced in supporting autistic people and those with a learning disability.

Using a person-centred approach, we'll support you to pursue your passions and try new activities. From volunteering and social outings to themed nights and caring for our chickens, there's lots to get involved with!

We'll also help you build everyday skills, boost your confidence, and increase your independence, both at home and in the wider community. You'll be supported with practical tasks, social interactions, and new experiences, all within a welcoming environment where your choices are respected and your achievements celebrated.
