Cedars

At Cedars, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilities, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and physical disabilities.

Our welcoming residential care home is designed with comfort, independence, and wellbeing in mind. We accommodate 14 people across three spacious bungalows, two with five bedrooms and one with four bedrooms. Each bungalow offers communal spaces to connect with other housemates, including a large kitchen, lounge, and garden areas.

Built with accessibility in mind, the home benefits from equipment to support those with mobility needs, including ceiling tracking hoists.

A place to call home

Located in a semi-rural setting near the towns of Grayshott, Hindhead and Haslemere, our home offers peace and tranquillity while still being close to everyday conveniences. Cedars is located on the same site as the Grove Resource Centre, which offers a range of activities, such as hydrotherapy and physiotherapy sessions.

Our housemates also enjoy regular community outings, such as cinema visits, shopping trips, bowling and much more. The team provide opportunities to explore, have fun and socialise!

Everyone at Cedars is supported to lead the life they choose, nurturing their unique goals and interests. Our team encourage the people we support to participate in their favourite hobbies or explore new passions.
