Red Gables

Red Gables is a welcoming residential care home, providing a warm, and nurturing environment within a coastal town.

Our spacious home has 11 bedrooms with plenty of communal areas designed to bring everyone together. With two comfortable lounges, a dining room, and a well-equipped kitchen, there are lots of opportunities to build independence, develop key living skills, and enjoy time with others. We also have a bright conservatory, calming sensory area, and a small annexe, providing flexible spaces to relax and unwind!

Life here is active and engaging, with a wide range of enjoyable activities and day trips organised throughout the year. From trampolining and tenpin bowling to swimming and cinema trips, there's always something to look forward to. We also enjoy popping to the pub, going on holidays, and celebrating special occasions together with fun parties and entertainment.

“I’m genuinely grateful for the care provided by the warm, kind, and dedicated team at Red Gables. They’re always prioritising the comfort of the people they support, and their genuine care truly shows - it makes a meaningful difference.”
