Rivers

Rivers is a residential care home offering a welcoming balance of independence and communal living.

Our home has six en-suite bedrooms that have access to comfortable communal living spaces including a lounge, modern kitchen, games room, and shared gardens. Although our home has been adapted with some mobility features, the age of the property means it's not accessible for wheelchair users.

Our location offers excellent access to the local community, with many amenities nearby. Just a short distance away is Langold Country Park, a popular local attraction featuring a large lake, woodland walks, fishing areas, a seasonal splash park, café, and skate park. Our village also offers convenient access to great public transport links and nearby towns, such as Worksop.

A place to call home

Our team is experienced in supporting people with a wide range of needs, including learning and physical disabilities, autism, low levels of behaviours that may challenge, and mental health needs.

Using a person-centred approach, we support you to build confidence, develop your independence, and embrace meaningful lifestyles. We encourage activities at home and in the community, that follow your passions and align with your goals.

Our home is fully staffed 24 hours a day, including waking night support. Our support is delivered by a highly trained team with expertise in safety interventions, medication management, and person-centred care.
