

St Barnabas Road, Reading, Berkshire

St Barnabas Road

St Barnabas Road is a welcoming residential care home, providing a warm and nurturing environment within a well-connected urban community.

Our semi-detached home has six bedrooms and offers comfortable communal spaces including a lounge and kitchen, designed to encourage social interaction and relaxation. Outside, our lovely garden has a fruit and vegetable patch where you can enjoy gardening activities and spend time in a peaceful setting!

Our location offers excellent access to the local community, with a doctors surgery and a parade of shops just a short distance away. We also have good bus routes into both Caversham and Reading town centre, where you can enjoy shopping, leisure activities, and travel further afield via the train station. Whether it's relaxing at home, exploring the community, or spending time together in our shared spaces, everyone always embraces positivity!
