Dryad Spinney

Dryad Spinney is a warm and welcoming residential care home providing person-centred support for people with a learning disability, autistic people, and associated needs.

A happy and relaxed home, our housemates have lots of opportunities to engage with each other in our spacious communal areas, including a kitchen and two lounges. We also have five individual bedrooms, each with their own private en-suite facilities. Outside, our garden surrounds the home and features a patio area - perfect for picnics and our large trampoline.

Based in the rural village of Langley in the New Forest, we have convenient amenities within walking distance. They include a post office, barbers, doctors, pharmacy and plenty of cafés and restaurants. For those looking to venture further afield, we have two service vehicles and a bus stop nearby. Together, we enjoy activities like visiting the zoo, bowling, and walks in the forest.

A place to call home

At Dryad Spinney, we promote community participation and social inclusion as a way to build independence and confidence. Each person we support is empowered to positively engage with group activities at home and in the community to support skills development and promote a sense of belonging.

Our experienced, established team provides a stable home environment where the people we support feel secure and at home. Together, we've built strong, trusting relationships with our housemates, empowering us to deliver high quality care and support!
