Green Lanes

At Green Lanes, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions including autism and learning disabilities.

Our relaxed seven-bedroom home has a calm and quiet environment. The people we support are encouraged to decorate their own bedrooms and we have a shared bathroom and shower facilities. Our home has a range of communal spaces including a lounge, kitchen, and a lovely suntrap garden and summer house - perfect for relaxing outdoors.

A good level of mobility would be needed to live here as the rooms are located on the first floor, although we do benefit from a stair lift.

A place to call home

Located in a urban area in Sutton Coldfield, we have easy access to the local community. Plenty of amenities are close by, such as supermarkets, shops, doctors surgeries and other healthcare services. The local area also benefits from an abundance of parks - perfect for connecting with nature.

Our home has excellent public transport nearby, connecting to Sutton Coldfield town centre and Birmingham city centre. We're also conveniently located near the A452 and M6 motorway, ideal for trips further afield.

Our experienced team aim to maintain a stable environment that promotes dignity, independence, emotional wellbeing, and positive relationships.
