Beech House

Beech House is a warm and welcoming residential care home. Our expert team support a range of needs and conditions, including learning disabilities, autism, and other complex needs.

Our six-bedroom detached home offers a friendly and homely environment, with three bedrooms on the ground floor and three on the first floor. The people we support have access to shared bathrooms, with bathing facilities available on each floor.

There are plenty of opportunities to relax, socialise, and enjoy time together in our communal spaces, including a spacious lounge for relaxing, a conservatory, and a kitchen. Outside, our large garden provides a lovely space to enjoy the fresh air, unwind, and spend time with family, friends and housemates.

A place to call home

Located in Woodley, Beech House is close to many amenities, including shops, cafés and leisure facilities. We have a large park nearby that's ideal for enjoying the outdoors. We also benefit from excellent transport links and Reading town centre is only a short drive away.

Everyone is encouraged to take part in meaningful activities tailored to individual needs and preferences. This could include visits to the local swimming pool, embracing social clubs, or even going on holiday.

Our experienced team are committed to providing personalised support and complete all mandatory and service-specific training to meet the needs of the people we support. We use a range of communication techniques and work closely with speech and language therapists to help individuals communicate in ways that work best for them.
