Mannering Avenue

At Mannering Avenue, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including autism, learning disabilities, and enduring mental health conditions.

Our home offers spacious living accommodation with eight en-suite bedrooms, a selection of shared communal spaces, and additional thoughtful features. Alongside our kitchen, lounge and dining area, we have an adapted training kitchen, sensory room, and a dedicated activities area. Each area is designed to support skills development and enhance emotional wellbeing.

Outside the home, we have a private garden where we enjoy relaxing in the fresh air and sunshine, spending time together playing outdoor games, and hosting al fresco dinners on warmer days.

A place to call home

Mannering Avenue is situated within a welcoming area where the people we support have embedded themselves as part of the community. We benefit from a rich variety of convenient amenities within walking distance of the home, including shops and food outlets.

Using person-centred support, we empower our housemates to pursue meaningful comunity opportunities. Across the wider area, they access work placements, social clubs, learning centres, and recreational activities to help them keep fit and healthy!

Each person is empowered to make decisions about their care and support, so they can live a life that's truly meaningful to them.
