Birchwood Bungalow

At Birchwood Bungalow, our expert team are experienced in supporting a range of needs and conditions, including autism, learning disabilities and other associated needs.

Our calm bungalow consists of seven bedrooms, with six on the ground floor and an additional spacious room upstairs, alongside a shower room. We have adapted bathrooms available, which ensure convenience and accessibility for all.

There's also welcoming communal spaces, including a large kitchen-diner, a cosy lounge, quiet room, and a large garden with a vegetable patch, which is surrounded by woodland - perfect for nature enthusiasts!

A place to call home

Located in the quiet residential area of St Albans, there are lots of local amenities nearby, including a shop, pharmacy, Post Office, bakery, newsagent, hairdresser, and healthcare services. The local area provides opportunities for walks, shopping, relaxing at cafés, places of worship, and other community activities.

The home has great transport links with a train station and bus stop close by. The town centre is only a short distance away and we have our own service vehicle which is used for trips further afield and supporting everyone with community activities.

Our team takes the time to understand each person's communication style, choices, interests, cultural background and support needs. By tailoring support around what matters most to them, we help people make choices about their daily lives, build their independence, achieve their goals and enjoy being part of their local community.
